DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Page 13, line 23, the examiner believes “leans” should be --lens--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the first and second drive means Providing movement of the base plate out of the plane perpendicular to the optical axis must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). It appears the drive means only move the plate within the plane perpendicular to the optical axis. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Miyamoto (U.S. Patent No. 5,659,806) in view of Lu (U.S. Pub No. 20020044264). Miyamoto teaches a lens position adjustment system for adjusting the position of a lens relative to a projection system said lens position adjustment system comprising a base plate 6a a lens fixing means 6 fixing a lens 8 with the base plate 6a, a first drive means 30 and a second drive means 31, said first drive means having at least one drive transfer zone 34 on the base plate for converting motion of said first drive means to a linear translational motion of said base plate, and said second drive means having at least one drive transfer zone 35 on the base plate for converting motion of said first drive means to a linear translational motion of said base plate wherein said drive transfer zones all lie in a single plane. The applicant is directed to review figures 1-3 and 12. Miyamoto teaches the lens adjustment mechanism for a camera. While a camera does project an image onto film or ccd, it is not a traditional "projection system". Lu teaches that it was known to move a projection lens of a projection system in two perpendicular directions which are both perpendicular to the projection axis in a projection system. The applicant is directed to review figure 3 for example. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the features taught by Lu for the purpose of preventing image degradation due to image shift.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

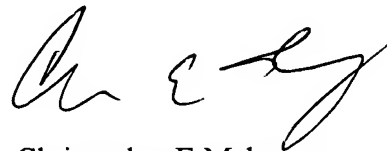

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
